The perfect getaway. Effortlessly achieved.

There's always something special about being the first. The first boot prints on the trail at sunrise, the first one into the pool, the first person to tee off under towering saguaros. Such moments are powerful, and we know them well. We were the first luxury resort in Scottsdale, and we've carried that feeling with us since 1936.

A lot has changed since then. Today our dramatic resort beneath majestic Mummy Mountain encompasses 125 acres. We have two championship golf courses, Scottsdale's most beloved spa, exceptional dining options and endless recreation. On the other hand, a lot has stayed the same here. We love the art of hospitality more than ever and we continue to perfect it through the decades. We take away unnecessary distractions and take care of your every desire.

Discover undiluted desert beauty, enchanting Southwestern charm and luxurious hospitality at Camelback Inn. Let us be the first to welcome you.

IT’S THAT HOT

Summer in Scottsdale is triple-digit, fry-an-egg-on-the-sidewalk, stick-your-head-in-the-freezer hot. Who’d want to vacation here? You will! Here’s why.

SIZZLING SUMMER RATES
When the mercury rises, room rates at Scottsdale’s finest resorts and hotels take a dip. In fact, you can save up to 60 percent on accommodations that include full-service luxury resorts, chic boutique hotels and hip urban properties in the heart of Old Town.

INDOOR ADVENTURES
When the heat’s on outside, check out these climate-controlled activities:
• Explore cutting-edge exhibitions at the Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art.
• Visit AZ on the Rocks for indoor climbing.
• Celebrate cowboy culture at Western Spirit: Scottsdale’s Museum of the West.
• Discover global music at the Musical Instrument Museum.
• Hit some balls in climate-controlled comfort at Topgolf.
• Experience the thrill of indoor skydiving at iFly Phoenix.
• Let Art of Merlot Paint and Wine Studio unleash your creativity.

RESORT WATERPARKS
There’s more than one way to make a splash in Scottsdale! Highlights include:
• Enjoy the Hyatt Regency Scottsdale’s 2.5-acre water playground, which boasts 10 pools and a three-story waterslide.
• Learn to surf at The Westin Kierland’s Flow Rider board sport simulator.
• Lounge in a luxe cabana at The Phoenician’s Mother-of-Pearl Pool.
• Chill to deejay-spun tunes every summer weekend at Hotel Valley Ho’s OH Pool or the pool at Talking Stick Resort.

BEAT-THE-HEAT ACTIVITIES
Exploring Scottsdale’s great outdoors isn’t off the table in summer – you just need to beat the heat with early-morning and after-dark activities like these:
• Sunrise hikes and tee times
• Early-morning yoga sessions
• River rafting, kayaking, SUPing and tubing
• Night-vision Jeep and Hummer tours 🏝

We’re thrilled that you’re considering Scottsdale for your next getaway, because we have something exceptional in store for you.

One of the first things you’ll notice when you arrive is the stirring beauty of our Sonoran Desert. The remarkable clarity of light, exotic cactus blossoms and lush desert landscape create an environment that will leave you inspired. It’s the perfect place to breathe a little deeper, let go of everyday worries and settle into an easier pace. That’s when you’re ready for some Scottsdale-style adventure and exploration.

To help you plan your journey, we’ve reached out to some of our favorite local experts (meet them on pgs. 8-9). From out-of-the-box ideas for exploring Old Town and favored local hiking trails to the best food and Arizona wine pairings, they’ll give you the inside scoop on the best our city has to offer.

So sit back, relax and let your curiosity ride shotgun as we introduce you to Scottsdale from the insiders’ points of view. 🌵
BUILD YOUR OWN
SCOTTSDALE ITINERARY

Whether you have an hour or a full day to explore Scottsdale, there are plenty of exciting things to see and do. We’ve grouped our favorites by the minimum amount of time recommended for each, so you can mix and match for your own customized Scottsdale itinerary.

BY JOANNE ZETEMBERG
IF YOU HAVE

ONE HOUR

TOUR OLD TOWN
A ride through Old Town on the free Scottsdale Trolley is a great introduction to the walkable districts that make up the city’s core. Highlights include the Fifth Avenue Shopping District, Arts District and Historic Old Town. Ride the entire route and make note of attractions, shops and restaurants you’d like to go back and visit. The trolley runs daily from 10 a.m. to 9:25 p.m. scottsdaleaz.gov/trolley

INTERACT WITH ART
Wonderspaces Arizona is a fascinating exploration of the idea that art is for everyone. Interactive exhibitions allow you to experience art through sight, touch, sound, movement and even virtual reality. Exhibitions change frequently, so there’s always something new to explore! arizona.wonderspaces.com

SAMPLE AZ WINE (OR BEER!)
Stop by LDV Winery’s tasting room in Old Town and enjoy a flight of the award-winning Rhône varietals handcrafted at their Southern Arizona vineyard. If you have more time, download the Scottsdale Wine Trail map at ScottsdaleGuides.com and explore all of Old Town’s wine-tasting rooms. Beer lovers can download the Scottsdale Ale Trail map and explore Old Town’s popular craft breweries.

EXPLORE COSANTI
Visit the home and studio of the late Italian architect Paolo Soleri, where his signature bronze windbells are still made and sold. Call ahead for bronze pouring times and see the creative process in action. The Cosanti shop sells bells of all sizes, as well as other decorative items. cosanti.com
IF YOU HAVE TWO HOURS

GET THE WRIGHT STUFF
In 2019, eight of Frank Lloyd Wright’s major works were inscribed to the UNESCO World Heritage List – including Scottsdale’s Taliesin West! Take a tour of this breathtaking desert masterpiece and enjoy sweeping views of Wright’s living room, private living quarters, theaters and cabaret. A variety of tours are offered, including the seasonal Night Lights tour, which showcases Taliesin West in full glow under the desert’s starry skies. franklloydwright.org

DISCOVER WESTERN SPIRIT
Western Spirit: Scottsdale’s Museum of the West showcases historic and contemporary works from all 19 states that make up the American West. Through permanent and rotating exhibitions, the five galleries take a storytelling and interactive approach to the rich cultural and artistic heritage of this continuously evolving region. scottsdalemuseumwest.org

TAKE A HIKE
Hiking is the best way to experience the magnificent Sonoran Desert up close. Scottsdale’s McDowell Sonoran Preserve offers 225+ miles of shared-use trails ranging from easy strolls to challenging workouts. Another popular hiking destination includes Pinnacle Peak Park. mcdowellsonoran.org / scottsdaleaz.gov/parks

EXPERIENCE ARTWALK
Every Thursday evening for 45 years, the galleries of Old Town’s historic Arts District have stayed open late from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. for the free weekly ArtWalk. Live music and artist receptions are just a couple of the highlights. Special Gold Palette ArtWalks take place numerous times throughout the year and offer entertainment geared toward the evening’s theme. scottsdalegalleries.com

SCOOT YOUR BOOTS
If you’re looking for nightlife with a Country Western flair, stop by Old Town’s Rusty Spur Saloon, which offers live music seven nights a week plus a cozy dance floor for two-stepping. Just north of Old Town, Handlebar J serves up a mix of live Country music and DJ-spun tunes, as well as free dance lessons on select evenings. rustyspursaloon.com / handlebarj.com

STROLL WITH THE BUTTERFLIES
Butterfly Wonderland is the nation’s largest butterfly conservatory, with more than 3,000 of these beautiful creatures flying freely in a tropical rainforest environment. butterflywonderland.com
LEARN ABOUT NATIVE AMERICAN CULTURE
The Heard Museum is one of the world’s finest destinations for learning about Native American cultures. The museum features outstanding exhibits of art and artifacts from the tribes of the Southwest, and also hosts premier events including the World Championship Hoop Dance Contest (Feb.) and Heard Museum Guild Indian Fair & Market (March). *Allow 4 hours to a full day for special events. heard.org

EXPLORE THE GARDEN
The Desert Botanical Garden boasts an unparalleled collection of arid-land plants from around the world. Walk the Garden’s five themed paths to learn about desert wildflowers, succulents, cacti and more. Don’t miss the Garden’s shop, which is filled with unique gift items. dbg.org

SWIM WITH THE FISH
Next door to Butterfly Wonderland, OdySea Aquarium features sharks, turtles, penguins, sea lions and other sea creatures from the oceans and rivers of the world. Don a wetsuit and oxygenated helmet on the SeaTREK experience and you can move through the water with the fish (no diving experience required)! odyseaaquarium.com

SADDLE UP
Get a taste of the Old West on a horseback-riding excursion through the Sonoran Desert. MacDonald’s Ranch (above) offers guided trail rides for all skill levels, while Windwalker Expeditions creates custom tours for experienced riders. macdonaldsranch.com / windwalkerexpeditions.com

CATCH A SHOW
The Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts offers a stellar calendar of dance, music, theater, comedy and film productions from around the world, including headliners like Jane Lynch, Mary Chapin Carpenter, Louie Anderson, The Chieftains, and Cirque Éloize. scottsdalearts.org

ADMIRE ART
The Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art offers outstanding exhibitions of cutting-edge art, architecture and design from around the world. Exhibitions change several times each year, which means there’s always something new to see. Be sure to check SMoCA’s events calendar for artist talks, workshops and fun evenings like “Mystery in the Museum.” smoca.org
IF YOU HAVE FOUR HOURS

TAKE FLIGHT
Hot-air balloon flights offer the most expansive views of the Sonoran Desert. After your sunrise flight, you’ll celebrate with a champagne toast and breakfast surrounded by breathtaking scenery. Sunset flights are offered during cooler months and end with champagne and hors d’oeuvres.

SCALE A ROCK WALL
Scottsdale’s McDowell Sonoran Preserve is home to 36 designated climbing areas with a wide range of difficulty ratings on formations like Tom’s Thumb, Sven Slab and Granite Ballroom. Local outfitters provide all-inclusive experiences for beginners and experienced climbers.

TRY MOUNTAIN BIKING
Scottsdale’s rolling Sonoran Desert foothills are ideal for mountain biking. For beginners, local outfitters provide comprehensive guided experiences that include transportation, equipment and instruction.

GO OFF-ROAD
Let expert interpretive guides take you into the desert’s most scenic expanses on tours by jeep, Hummer or “you-drive” Tomcars and C2 vehicles. Keep your eyes peeled for red-tailed hawks, coyotes and wild horses.

MAKE A SPLASH
The Scottsdale area’s eight lakes and rivers are perfect for rafting, canoeing, kayaking and stand-up paddleboarding. Calm-water river-rafting floats are ideal for wildlife watching, or choose whitewater thrills on class III and IV rapids (seasonal).

MAKE IT AN EVENT
Scottsdale hosts numerous special events and festivals throughout the year, including the Waste Management Phoenix Open, Barrett-Jackson Collector Car Auction, Celebration of Fine Art, MLB Spring Training, Scottsdale Arabian Horse Show, Scottsdale Arts Festival and the Scottsdale International Film Festival. See pages 45-51 for annual event highlights.

SEE PAGE 112 FOR ADVENTURE OUTFITTERS.
VISIT KARTCHNER CAVERNS
Located south of Tucson, an easy day trip from Scottsdale, Kartchner Caverns is one of the world’s only “living” caves accessible to the public. See delicate formations like soda straws, as well as “Kubla Khan,” the largest column formation in Arizona.

SEE JEROME
The quirky burg of Jerome teeters a mile in the air, high atop Cleopatra Hill. This former copper-mining town is now an artsy enclave that boasts dozens of unique shops, galleries and restaurants. Check out the Mine Museum and Jerome State Historic Park, and when you work up an appetite, pay a visit to the Haunted Hamburger for a tasty meal and, if you’re lucky, some ghostly company.

FLY OVER THE GRAND CANYON
Guided tours aboard fixed-wing aircraft depart metro Scottsdale daily for one of the world’s most amazing natural wonders, the Grand Canyon. Combination tours can include helicopter flights, a short river-rafting adventure on the mighty Colorado, rim walks and visits to the West Rim’s glass-bottom Skywalk.

GO FOR THE GUSTO
Can’t decide between a river-rafting adventure, a horseback ride, a Tomcar tour and a desert cookout? Combo tours let you experience several Scottsdale Sonoran Desert adventures all in one ultimate experience!

IF HIKING ISN’T SCOTTSDALE’S OFFICIAL PASTIME, IT SHOULD BE.
No other Arizona city has protected such expansive tracts of pristine desert and mountains. The McDowell Sonoran Preserve and neighboring parks provide instant access to wild country. It’s a quality-of-life benefit cherished by residents and also enjoyed by visitors.

With hundreds of miles of trails to choose from, it can be hard to pick the best one for you. Here’s a brief hiking guide to help you get started.

CHALLENGING: TOM’S THUMB
Capping a high ridge in the McDowell Mountains, Tom’s Thumb is a cloudspearing thrust of stone visible for miles. The trail to reach the formation is steep, but the views are so stunning, I barely notice that I’m huffing and puffing.
Hikers start on a level path in the McDowell Sonoran Preserve departing from Tom’s Thumb Trailhead. Then the switchbacks tilt upward and you’re soon climbing through a lavish garden of boulders.

The steepness tapers off, and after 2 miles you’ll reach the short spur path that rambles to the base of the thumb. Take time to explore the alcoves and breezeway carved into the rocky formation. Although the Tom’s Thumb Trail continues, this feels like a perfect turnaround point. Head back down for a strenuous 4.6-mile round-trip hike.

Trailhead: Tom’s Thumb (23015 N. 128th Way)
Difficulty Rating: Difficult
SCENIC: GRANITE MOUNTAIN LOOP
I’ve often said that despite its sharp and spiny fingers, the Arizona desert has an uncanny ability to steal your heart. This trail proves it. Slip away from the city and be immersed in a land of texture and drama. Saguaro’s march across terrain punctuated by giant boulder slabs, while craggy Granite Mountain dominates the skyline.

Granite Mountain Trailhead anchors the northern portion of Scottsdale’s McDowell Sonoran Preserve. Start on Bootlegger Trail, then Saddlehorn before connecting to Granite Mountain Loop. The trail hugs the lower slope as it makes a languid circle delivering relentless panoramas and soul-nourishing solitude. The hike maintains a gentle grade for the 6.1-mile round-trip.

Trailhead: Granite Mountain (31402 N. 136th St.)
Difficulty Rating: Moderate

KID-FRIENDLY: HOLE IN THE ROCK
It’s not much of a trail really, more just a scramble up the back of a hill to a cave, which is what makes it so perfect for kids. And for geezers like me who never forgot the simple joy of climbing on rocks and exploring holes. The trail in Papago Park provides access to one of the distinctive buttes of crumpled sandstone that resemble scoops of partially melted petrified ice cream. Eons of erosion gouged out caves and alcoves in the rocky formations, and a wide path takes you to the most prominent.

It’s an easy 0.2-mile climb around the backside to a big natural opening. Enter the chamber once used as a solar calendar by the Hohokam people and enjoy commanding views of the Valley of the Sun. Of course, the hike is just the start of a great day. Papago Park also is home to two of the region’s most popular destinations, the Phoenix Zoo and Desert Botanical Garden. Soon as you’re rested, climb down for your next adventure.

Trailhead: Hole in the Rock (Papago Park Rd. east of Galvin Pkwy.)
Difficulty Rating: Easy
FAST FACT
The rock features at Papago Park are believed to be 20 million years old!
WORKOUT: PINNACLE PEAK
Distinctive Pinnacle Peak is a signature Scottsdale formation, a granite rocket rising from jumbled boulders enticing you outdoors. A city park was established to preserve the beauty of these hard-scrabble hills. The 1.75-mile trail is a wide, manicured path filled with hikers, runners and a stream of regulars. It feels like I’m part of a community as we share smug smiles knowing we’re getting our exercise without venturing into some gym that smells like sweaty socks.

Pinnacle Peak Trail provides a genuine workout with plenty of ups and downs as it scrambles through classic Sonoran Desert. Hikers will find impressive overlooks with benches, interpretive signs and mileage markers to chart their progress. Savor panoramas of distant mountains, as well as closer peeks at Estancia Golf Club. Upon reaching the western terminus, retrace your steps for a moderate 3.5-mile hike.

Trailhead: Pinnacle Peak Park (26802 N. 102nd Way)
Difficulty Rating: Moderate

things to bring

1 SUNSCREEN: Sunscreen is a necessity no matter what time of year you visit!
2 WHISTLE: If you need assistance, the sound of a whistle carries farther than your voice.
3 WATER: Carry more than you think you’ll need for everyone in your party, including pets. Bring at least 1 quart per person for short hikes and at least 1 gallon per person for longer hikes.
4 TRAIL MAP: Maps of Scottsdale’s McDowell Sonoran Preserve can be downloaded at scottsdaleaz.gov/preserve.
5 CELL PHONE: A fully charged cell phone is the best item to have in the event of an emergency.
6 SNACKS: Refuel with snacks like nuts, dried fruit, jerky or energy bars.
7 COMB: A fine-tooth comb comes in handy for flicking away cholla cactus buds that can attach to shoes, skin or clothes if you brush against them.
HISTORIC: MARCUS LANDSLIDE INTERPRETIVE TRAIL

A half-million years ago, a great slab of mountain suddenly sheared off, plunged earthward and roared across the valley floor. Nearly 26 billion pounds of rock, soil and vegetation flowed about a mile in a furious torrent before finally coming to rest. The Marcus Landslide Trail, in the McDowell Sonoran Preserve, rambles through peaceful desert with informative signs recounting that tale of long-ago cataclysm and violence.

The level trail first skirts the mountains, cutting through a virtual forest of cholla cactus. Overhead are stone slabs as big as cars and cabins. My favorite part comes at the end, when the trail climbs up onto the slidemass picking through a maze of jumbled boulders that were once part of the mountains above. Return to the trailhead for a 3.8-mile moderate and insightful hike.

Trailhead: Tom’s Thumb (23015 N. 128th Way)
Difficulty Rating: Moderately Difficult

EDUCATIONAL: BAJADA NATURE TRAIL

The beauty of the desert is available to everyone on this short ADA-accessible loop, including those in wheelchairs or pushing strollers. Starting from the Gateway Trailhead in the McDowell Sonoran Preserve, the half-mile loop includes a connector trail across the middle so the distance can be shortened.

What I love is the signage, which goes way beyond identifying a few plants or landmarks. Instead, visitors are connected to the wide-ranging inhabitants of this rugged desert. Learn how animals and plants survive the harsh conditions, what the future might hold, and important steps we can take to make the world just a little better.

Trailhead: Gateway (18333 N. Thompson Peak Pkwy.)
Difficulty Rating: Easiest

OUT OF THE BOX

BY MARILYN HAWKES
PHOTOS BY BRITTANY & LEO MORALES
In 1888, when U.S. Army Chaplain Winfield Scott settled the land that is now Old Town Scottsdale, he was enthralled with the area’s potential. More than 130 years later, Old Town has become a world-class destination with top-notch restaurants, art galleries and museums, and countless entertainment options. If you’re looking for unique ways to experience Old Town, here are five out-of-the-box activities to get you started.

JOYRIDESAZ INSTAGRAM PHOTO AND ART TOURS
If you want to capture the most Instagram-worthy spots in Old Town, check out the JoyridesAZ Instagram Photo Tour. Travel via golf cart to at least six of 40 locations and the driver will snap photos of you and your group with or without props and then airdrop them to your phones. Stops include Hotel Adeline’s WTF (Where’s the Fun?) wall and the retro-chic Hotel Valley Ho. Joyrides also offers a public art tour of Old Town that takes in 10 sculptures and includes a refreshing gelato stop. Other tours are available.

THE ART OF MERLOT
If browsing the galleries of the Arts District leaves you inspired, pull up a chair, grab a paintbrush and discover your hidden artistic talent at Art of Merlot. Choose a painting from the gallery or go freestyle and create your own masterpiece. With the help of instructors and boundless encouragement, you can fashion beautiful paintings while listening to music and chatting with your fellow artists. Purchase wine onsite or bring your own bottle (no hard liquor). The studio provides all supplies plus a big dose of fun.

SCOTTSDALE SEGWAY TOURS
For the most fun you can have on two wheels, hop on a Segway with Scottsdale Segway Tours.

ExperienceScottsdale.com
Segway Tours for an unforgettable trip through Old Town. After getting outfitted with a helmet and headset, you'll attend a 15-minute training session and then embark with your group and guide on a journey to Scottsdale Civic Center Park, the Arts District, Scottsdale Waterfront and other points of interest. You'll cover five to seven miles, depending on the tour, and will learn the history of Scottsdale as well as discover restaurants, bars, museums and art galleries you might want to visit later.

ARIZONA PARTY BIKE OLD TOWN PUB CRAWL
Grab some friends, board the party bike and pedal your way to three of Old Town’s best bars. The two-hour pub crawl includes drink specials at each stop, but you can also bring beer and wine on board. Piloted by an experienced driver, each party bike accommodates up to 15 people and is equipped with a stellar sound system for your choice of tunes. If you get tired or just want to relax after a few stops, the party bike has an electrical-assist motor.

SECOND NATURE CLINIC IV THERAPY AND AYURVEDIC FACIAL
For those in need of a pick-me-up after a festive night in Old Town, book an appointment for an “Immune Boost” IV drip with a rejuvenating dose of vitamin C, B complex and zinc; or choose “The Hangover” to rehydrate and replenish essential B vitamins. Treatments, which take 60 to 90 minutes, are administered in a quiet room where you can kick back and relax. Pair the infusion with an Ayurvedic mini facial to detoxify and revitalize your skin, and you’ll be back up and running in no time! 🌟
MAP OUT YOUR ROUTE.
WANDER AROUND AIMLESSLY.
EITHER WAY, YOU’LL FIND SOMETHING FUN.

We don’t have enough fingers, toes or hooves to count up all the things to do in Old Town — all within a whistle of each other. You will find local coffee shops, microbreweries, wine bars, gourmet restaurants, world-renowned art galleries and retail shops, spas, boutique hotels, live music and historic western museums. That’s just a sample of the unique and interesting things you never knew existed. Go on. Wander. In no time you’ll be into something good.

HEALTHY EATS & DECADENT CHEATS

BY JULIA HILL / PHOTOS BY JENELLE BONIFIELD
WHEN HUNGER STRIKES, DO YOU WANT TO FUEL UP ON HEALTHY, FRESH GOODS OR TREAT YOURSELF TO SOMETHING CRAVE-WORTHY?

With hundreds of dining options, Scottsdale makes it easy to bite into both health-conscious eats and decadent cheats worthy of a caloric splurge. Here are some of our favorites to inspire your appetite.

HEALTHY EATS
CITIZEN PUBLIC HOUSE: THE ORIGINAL CHOPPED SALAD
Born from the mind of local chef Bernie Kantak, this salad’s iconic edible stripes have earned it a cult following and more than a handful of online recipe replications. Head to Citizen Public House to experience the “original”: rows of corn, couscous, smoked salmon, asiago, pepitas, tomatoes, arugula and currants in a buttermilk pesto dressing. citizenpublichouse.com

OCEAN 44: HAWAIIAN POKE
Ocean 44’s raw-bar delicacies bring the coast to the city, and the tropical flavors in the Hawaiian Poke please like a refreshing seaside breeze. Choose from sushi-grade tuna or Pacific yellowtail hamachi, flown in fresh daily and marinated with togarashi, Thai chili and crisp cucumbers. ocean44.com

DAILY DOSE: POWER BOWL
Health nuts can kick off the morning at Daily Dose’s popular Old Town digs. If you’re hitting the trails or just want a clean start for a day of exploration around town, the Power Bowl is your pick. This breakfast favorite blends grilled tempeh, kale, egg whites, spinach and a house grain blend and comes decked with salsa, queso fresco and avocado. dailydosegrill.com

FARM & CRAFT: TOCOA STEAK BOWL
Going light for lunch doesn’t mean sacrificing flavor with the organic, gluten-free and sustainable ingredients hand-picked at Farm & Craft. The Tocoa Steak Bowl hits the healthy high notes with portions of grass-fed beef and farro, a salad of fresh corn, sweet potato and black bean, plus avocado and a snappy cilantro jicama slaw. ilovefarmandcraft.com
DECADENT CHEATS

THE VIG AT McDOWELL MOUNTAIN: SHORT RIB AND HASH
What’s more indulgent than a hearty plate of home-cooked comfort? Dig your forks into The Vig’s flavorful red wine-braised short rib, a tasty cut with a rich and good-looking demi-glace shine. The sweet potato hash and cauliflower purée add a sweet and savory smack to the side. thevig.us

STARLITE BBQ: GREEN CHILI PORK
Share it with friends off the appetizer menu or tuck into this cast-iron creation on your own – we won’t judge. Starlite’s Southwestern take on a Frito pie combines tender pork and crunchy chips and comes slathered with cheese, sour cream and a sprinkle of sliced jalapeños. Try it for brunch with a fried egg. starlitebbq.com

HASH KITCHEN: BUILD YOUR OWN BLOODY MARY BAR + BANANA SPLIT BROICHE
Choose your flavor of mix and house-infused vodka, salt your rim, and it’s off to the races in Hash Kitchen’s 60-ingredient build-your-own Bloody Mary bar. Brunchers can top up on everything from bacon to pickles to fried ravioli. Complement your savory sipping with a sweet favorite like the piled-high Banana Split Brioche, a thick toast with caramelized bananas, seasonal berries and a salted caramel drizzle. hashkitchen.com

ZUZU AT HOTEL VALLEY HO: THE “SHOW STOPPER” SHAKE
This over-the-top milkshake simply can’t be contained. Goodies pour out the top and over the sides of a photogenic sweet feast, where you might be digging through mini cakes, marshmallows or a full slice of pie before you get to slurping your ice cream. Themes change monthly and have included s’mores, unicorns, horchata and strawberry shortcake. Whatever month you visit, you can’t go wrong! hotelvalleyho.com

For all its contemporary offerings, Scottsdale’s Western roots still run deep. Here are some places where you can get a taste of the way things were back in the day.

CAVALLIERE BLACKSMITH SHOP
This building on Brown Avenue in the heart of Old Town Scottsdale was opened in 1909 by George Cavalliere, the 17th official citizen of Scottsdale. His grandson George runs it now, with free tours available between December and March on Saturdays from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. You may get to see George working at a forge where he creates custom metal work, or you can check out many century-old pieces, including spurs, lanterns, wagon wheels and even antique washing machines.

In June 2019, cowboy hats and boots, although both are still welcome, were traded in for cocktails (like the Postmaster and Smokin’ Saddle) when this new bar opened in the space.

RUSTY SPUR SALOON
This legendary drinking establishment on Old Town’s Main Street has had many lives. The site of Scottsdale’s first bank in the 1920s, it’s also been a real estate agency, Chamber of Commerce office, and coffee shop and café. Today, Scottsdale’s oldest cowboy saloon is a small space that fills up fast with a diverse crowd listening, singing and dancing to live country music seven days a week.

HANDLEBAR J
Cowboy hats hanging from the ceiling and the echoes of Waylon Jennings (who was once a regular performer here) are just two signs of this saloon’s Old West heritage. Country music is still part of the soundtrack, and dance lessons are offered weekly.

PORTERS WESTERN SALOON
Scottsdale’s first full-time U.S. Post Office had a long run as the home to Porters Western Wear – from 1949 to 2019, in fact.

SCOTTSDALE RODEO MUSEUM
Located across from Cavalliere Blacksmith Shop, this museum boasts Parada del Sol rodeo artifacts dating back to 1953, including saddles ridden by rodeo champions like Jake Barns.
WESTERN SPIRIT: SCOTTSDALE’S MUSEUM OF THE WEST

Here are a few highlights of what to see in Scottsdale’s Museum of the West, recognized as the “Nation’s Best Western Museum”- by True West Magazine.

Abe Hays Family Spirit of the West Collection
For more than 50 years Abe Hays collected quintessentially Western artifacts, including holsters, spurs, chaps, bronco belts, knives, hats and saddles. Hundreds are displayed here in an Old Western Town setting.

Maynard Dixon’s American West
Artist Maynard Dixon captured the spirit and lifestyle of the American West like few others. This groundbreaking retrospective of his work, which runs through August 2020, brings together nearly 300 artworks and a re-creation of Dixon’s work studio.

Courage and Crossroads: A Visual Journey Through the Early American West
Colorful and historic Native American objects, including Navajo chief’s blankets and Native tanned-hide women’s dresses of the Lakota (South Dakota) and Northern Arapaho (Wyoming) tribes, are highlights of this exhibition.
Best Arizona Parks
NOT NAMED GRAND CANYON

STORY AND PHOTOS BY ROGER NAYLOR
Cacti as tall as office buildings, remnants of ancient civilizations, legendary swimming holes, a forest turned to colorful stone and sparkling lakes. Yes, there’s more to Arizona than the Grand Canyon. Some of the best parts of this amazing state are protected in parks that aren’t named after a big hole in the ground.

SAGUARO NATIONAL PARK
The Sonoran Desert stretching across the southern half of Arizona is home to the largest, most iconic cactus in the country. The mighty saguaro can grow as tall as a five-story building and sprouts a cluster of upraised arms as if reaching for the clouds. Saguaros can live to be 200 years old, and their blossom is Arizona’s state flower. The lean giants are celebrated in two segments of Saguaro National Park that bracket the city of Tucson. Each offers scenic drives, hiking trails and the most biologically diverse of all deserts.

222 miles / 4:10 hrs. RT, nps.gov/sagu

LAKE PLEASANT REGIONAL PARK
No one appreciates water more than desert dwellers, so the numerous lakes shimmering on the outskirts of Scottsdale are beloved destinations. Big Lake Pleasant, ringed by cactus-dotted hills, makes a watery playground for anglers, boaters, swimmers, campers and hikers. Wildlife sightings are common at this unexpected oasis, but keep a special eye out for the wild burros that are frequent visitors.

104 miles / 2:10 hrs. RT maricopacountyparks.net

PETRIFIED FOREST NATIONAL PARK
A rolling prairie breaks apart against a cluster of inhospitable badlands in northeastern Arizona. Crumbling siltstone banded with seams of color shimmers and changes with the light. It’s hard to imagine while gazing across this wind-scoured landscape, but during the Triassic Period this was a tropical jungle patrolled by crocodile-like reptiles, giant amphibians and small dinosaurs. Remnants of that time—sprawling collections of colorful petrified wood—are found throughout the park.

382 miles / 6:30 hrs. RT, nps.gov/pefo

AZ’s Big 3
These tried-and-true spots are a must for any Arizona explorer.

THE GRAND CANYON
At 277 miles long, 18 miles wide and 1 mile deep, the Grand Canyon is overwhelming in its size and beauty. Explore the South Rim and marvel at the Canyon’s breathtaking combination of geologic color and erosional formations.

474 miles / 7:30 hrs. RT, nps.gov/grca

SEDONA
Sedona’s red-rock landscape is a stunning backdrop for Jeep tours, hiking and vortex tours. In town, enjoy award-winning resorts and spas, unique boutiques, fine dining and a renowned arts and cultural scene.

250 miles / 4:30 hrs. RT, visitsedona.com

MONUMENT VALLEY TRIBAL PARK
Part of the Navajo Nation, Monument Valley is renowned for its sandstone buttes and formations made famous in Western movies. There is a self-guided 17-mile loop drive, as well as guided hiking, Jeep and horseback tours.

662 miles / 10:50 hrs. RT, navajonationparks.org
SLIDE ROCK STATE PARK
Nestled in Oak Creek Canyon north of Sedona, visitors to this park cool off in one of the most famous swimming holes in the Southwest. Stone banks throttle the creek into a narrow, frothy chute creating a natural water slide. Along the route are pools of varying depth, perfect for wading, swimming and cliff jumping. During other seasons, savor the tall canyon walls and the historic orchards of the old homestead where you can picnic like there’s no tomorrow.
264 miles / 4:48 hrs. RT, azstateparks.com

WUPATKI NATIONAL MONUMENT
The dwellings at Wupatki were the work of the ancestral Puebloan People through the centuries, including the Hohokam, Cohonina, Kayenta and Sinagua cultures. They were constructed from thin blocks of Moenkopi sandstone, giving them their distinctive red color. Most were built more than 900 years ago on the volcanic plains of Northern Arizona in the shadow of the San Francisco Peaks.
368 miles / 5:50 hrs. RT, nps.gov/wupa

PICACHO PEAK STATE PARK
The westernmost battle of the Civil War was fought on the flanks of a mountain that’s part of an eroded volcanic flow, about 76 miles southeast of Scottsdale. Today, such violence seems far removed from the peace and quiet of the park.
152 miles / 2:40 hrs. RT, azstateparks.com

HOT TIP
If you visit Slide Rock in mid-April, you just might catch the park’s historic apple orchard in full bloom!

Note: Approximate mileages and drive times are round-trip (RT); add time for sightseeing.

WESTWORLD OF SCOTTSDALE

scottsdaleskyfest.com • 844.426.7422 • info@scottsdaleskyfest.com
Scottsdale has it all. From lively cultural festivals that celebrate the diversity of the Southwest to culinary fests that put the local food community in the spotlight, there’s no shortage of world-class events to experience.
HEARD MUSEUM GUILD INDIAN FAIR & MARKET
This annual marketplace is one of the Southwest’s largest and most prestigious events, featuring more than 600 top Native American artists. In addition to browsing and buying authentic handmade artwork by the finest sculptors, painters, jewelers, bead workers and katsina carvers, you’ll have the opportunity to take in cultural presentations and sample traditional Native foods.

SCOTTSDALE ARTS FESTIVAL
Held at Civic Center Park, this festival brings world-class art, live music, family fun, and gourmet food to the heart of Scottsdale. Festival goers of all ages can discover artworks from more than 170 jury-selected artists or explore their own creativity with unique hands-on activities and workshops. The Scottsdale Arts Festival will celebrate its 50th anniversary in March 2020.

NIRVANA FOOD & WINE FESTIVAL
Paradise Valley’s posh Sanctuary on Camelback Mountain hosts this star-studded culinary extravaganza each spring. The multi-day showcase of all things food and wine includes a series of unique experiences ranging from intimate seated dinners to lively themed events featuring the hottest culinary trends.

ARIZONA TACO FESTIVAL
The region’s reigning taco fest will celebrate its 11th anniversary in fall 2020. WestWorld of Scottsdale hosts a true taco takeover when the Arizona Taco Festival sets up shop for two days filled with tacos, tequila, live music, food demos, eating contests and even a chihuahua beauty pageant.

SCOTTSDALE INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL
The Scottsdale International Film Festival delivers award-winning cinema from around the world to the Southwest. The 10-day destination event showcases a variety of films ranging from undiscovered indie films to hit commercial flicks, all plucked from a diverse mix of genres. The film festival has delivered more than 600 films since it was founded in 2001.

ARIZONA ASIAN FESTIVAL
Many of Asia’s diverse cultures are celebrated at the Arizona Asian Festival. This two-day event features an abundance of delicious Asian cuisines, an arts-and-crafts marketplace, plus a parade of cultural traditions ranging from performances to classic culture exhibits.

NEW IN 2020: SCOTTSDALE SKYFEST!
The Scottsdale SkyFest & Balloon Glow hosts its inaugural event Nov. 27-29, 2020! This new festival brings an exciting twist to Thanksgiving weekend with mass hot air balloon ascensions and evening balloon glows, as well as holiday arts and crafts, a kids’ zone, beer garden and live music. It’s holiday fun for the whole family! scottdaleskyfest.com

HOTELS & RESORTS
Stay and Play
There’s plenty of fun to be had in and around Scottsdale, but don’t pass up the unique activities right at your resort. Here are a handful of free or inexpensive on-property amenities that are sure to please every traveler in your squad.

Guided tours through The Phoenician’s two-acre Cactus Garden are a crash course in Sonoran Desert horticulture. Featuring 250 varieties of cacti—including jumping cholla, golden barrel and the towering saguaro—it’s a prime spot for photo ops. Keep your eyes peeled for quail and cactus wrens.

Discovering the Hyatt Regency Scottsdale Resort & Spa at Gainey Ranch’s “Four Worlds” program brings you closer to the art and people of the Southwest with demonstrations in Navajo bead working and flute carving, as well as Hopi katsina doll carving and Pima basket-weaving. On Friday evenings (Sept.-May), take in a free cultural performance of Native American music, dance and storytelling.

Hotel Valley Ho’s expert-led Magical History Tour (priced at $19.56 for the year the hotel opened) is an intriguing trip back through time that studies the design and architecture of one of the country’s best-preserved midcentury modern hotels. This 90-minute historical perspective from the pros at Ultimate Art & Cultural Tours sheds fresh light on an iconic Scottsdale landmark.
DON’T MISS

See free Native American cultural performances Fridays at 5 p.m. (Sept. – May) at the Hyatt Regency Scottsdale.
Drinks at Hotel Adeline’s not-so-secret speakeasy, Straight Up Whiskey Bar, start at $14, but the fun of searching for its hidden entrance is totally free. You’ll need the password (hint: the front desk staff may be able to help) and will need to sleuth out its entrance (try phoning a friend).

Andaz Scottsdale Resort & Bungalows is all about art, and you can try your hand at creativity with its weekly Spin Art Postcards sessions, where you make your own picturesque mementos, or watch the pros work on a tour of nearby Cattle Track Arts Compound.

CIVANA understands that “wellness” means different things to different people, and its lineup of classes is a wholesome reflection of individuality, from Angel Meditation (where you connect with those who protect you) to Watercolor Art and Shake and Stir healthy cocktail classes.

Every Friday at dusk, The Scott Resort & Spa hosts Havana Nights with classic black-and-white movies and Mexican street popcorn. Wednesdays are Juego (Game) Night and your chance to get in on the fun of dominoes, backgammon or chess — with happy-hour pricing until 10 p.m. 🍸
Experience the pinnacle of relaxation and escape to a tranquil hideaway, nestled on 1,300 acres in North Scottsdale. Bask poolside amidst ancient boulder formations & pamper yourself at our 33,000 SqFt. spa. Meet and Retreat while enjoying panoramic golf views of the high Sonoran desert.
Whether you’re adding to your photo album or just looking for the most beautiful places to visit, put on that picture-perfect outfit, grab your camera and a friend, and visit Scottsdale’s most picturesque resorts. They’ll bring your Instagram feed plenty of love!

SPAS & WELLNESS

Discover Desert Healing
healing therapies

BY KATARINA KOVACEVIC

THE PHOENICIAN SPA
Scottsdale is home to 50 resort and day spas with a wide range of experiences inspired by healing modalities from around the world. And if you’re ready to go beyond indulgent facials and standard bodywork, you’ll find plenty of treatments that harmonize the mind, body and spirit, too.

Enhance a Reflexology massage at Hyatt Regency Scottsdale Resort & Spa at Gainey Ranch with a Spa.Wave experience. This computer-controlled, high-tech spa bed offers “binaural acoustic and dynamic stimulation,” a form of sound and vibrational therapy that balances your chakras for physical and spiritual alignment. Bring your brain and body to a state of total relaxation, then finish the day inside Spa Avania’s Himalayan Salt Room for a peaceful immune boost and natural detox.

The Harmonic Bowl Healing at The Phoenician may seem like an intriguing meditation practice, but it’s much more than that. When played, the handmade Himalayan sound bowls actually resonate with your body on a cellular level, emanating peaceful sounds and unique frequencies that stir up an internal vibration. By placing the singing bowls on and around your body, your service provider can help ease anxiety and even work out sore muscles.

CIVANA’s Aqua Shiatsu Therapy combines hydrotherapy with elements of massage, muscle stretching and shiatsu — an ancient Japanese practice based on the same principles as acupuncture. Immersed in the warm waters of a private pool, your body is gently guided through a series of rhythmic movements and light touches. Supported by the therapist and buoyed by water, you enter a deep meditative state that calms your mind and aids in pain relief.

A simple and intuitive form of emotional and spiritual healing, Reiki is a Japanese technique that’s beloved for its ability to reduce stress and promote relaxation. At Fairmont Scottsdale Princess, a 60-minute spell applies the traditional “laying on hands” hover technique to release blocked or negative feelings — no massage required. It’s all based on the idea that a trained therapist can channel positive energy directly into your body for holistic well-being.

Feeling out of step with your higher self? Lift your spirits with a Soul Connect experience at Sanctuary Camelback Mountain Resort and Spa. With an expert therapist there to guide you, you’ll set an intention for your meditative journey by drawing a divinity card — like a tarot card, but simpler — then get back in tune with your head and your heart during a soothing session that blends chakra balancing, massage and energy work. 🌟
The Sonoran Desert in and around Scottsdale is a veritable bounty of healing botanicals. Try one of these soothing treatments that blend indigenous ingredients with modern-day indulgences.

DESERT LAVENDER MASSAGE | The Spa at Talking Stick Resort
This relaxing massage begins with a blend of desert lavender and wild chaparral oil to ensure complete calmness and relief from stress. Warm tufts of raw Pima cotton are incorporated by using feather-light strokes to calm the emotions and nervous system.

DESERT SEASONS PEDICURE | Well & Being Spa at Fairmont Scottsdale Princess
Pamper your tootsies with fresh desert botanicals tailored to the season: desert chaparral in spring, lemongrass in summer, prickly pear in fall and juniper berry in winter. After a gentle exfoliation, the season’s warm herbal blend is massaged into your legs for the ultimate in relaxation.

DESERT NECTAR HONEY WRAP | The Spa at Camelback Inn
Pure Arizona honey, buttermilk and oats combine to drench your skin with moisture. After your body is rinsed and hydrated, a facial with natural orange blossom water, sweet lavender oil and a hydrating mask leaves your face baby soft.

SIGNATURE CLAY WRAP | Spa at the Boulders Resort
In many Native American traditions, it is believed that the turquoise stone carries vibrations of protection, self-confidence and positive energy. Experience a revitalizing desert salt exfoliation, followed by the warm turquoise clay wrap, designed to purify and refine the skin.

SONORAN SCRUB | Palo Verde Spa & Apothecary at Andaz Scottsdale
Create your own customized body scrub at Andaz Scottsdale’s Desert Scrub Bar. Choose between re-mineralizing desert salts, agave-infused sugar and ultra-fine mesquite buffing grains. Add an infused desert botanical oil of your choice for a light fragrance and healthy glow.

For more desert-inspired treatments, visit ExperienceScottsdale.com.
Mind, body and soul renewed on a daily basis.

Discover the healing properties of the Sonoran Desert at The Spa at Camelback Inn, where tranquility and balance come together in a perfect way. In an environment of calm and well-being, you are encouraged to reconnect with your inner self.

Our treatments blend time-tested remedies and indigenous plants and herbs with healing modern-day techniques. With each one-hour treatment booked, you’ll receive access to our Spa and amenities for the entire day — including the private, heated outdoor lap pool with stunning views of Camelback Mountain, whirlpools, Turkish Steam Bath, solariums, Swiss shower, Finnish saunas, relaxation lounges, state-of-the-art fitness center, exercise classes, Sprouts spa café, skin care shop, spa boutique and more.

GOLF

Hit the Greens
Some rounds of golf go so well that you never want them to end. Others can’t end soon enough, especially if you’re playing poorly. But barring a playoff to settle a bet, they all finish on the 18th hole. While Scottsdale is full of fun courses, some finishing holes stand out more than others. Here are five you won’t soon forget.
KIERLAND GOLF CLUB (ACACIA NINE) - The closer on this nine, one of three at this facility adjacent to The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa, ends with a dramatic 531-yard par-5. Tee off on the property’s highest point and then avoid the water all the way up the left side to a green almost completely surrounded by bunkers.
TPC SCOTTSDALE (STADIUM COURSE) – You’ll be walking in famous footsteps here. Home to the PGA Tour’s Waste Management Phoenix Open since 1987, the finale is a worthy 442-yard par-4, made more so after a 2014 renovation that added a grouping of evil church pew-style bunkers down the left side. You also may have to carry a lake, depending on which tee you’re playing from.

TROON NORTH (MONUMENT COURSE) – Enjoy the view from the elevated tee on this 370-yard par-4, but do avoid three fairway bunkers and another four almost encircling the green, which itself has a devilish false front.

THE PHOENICIAN – A 2018 renovation of this resort course made the closing par-5 a little bit easier. But just a little. Architect Phil Smith increased the landing area over a new fairway bunker on this dogleg right by pulling back an existing pond farther to the right. But you still have to cross that water hazard to reach the green.

GRAYHAWK (RAPTOR COURSE) Position your downhill tee shot properly on this 521-yard par-5 and you may be able to go for the green in two. Making it tricky is a fairway sloping noticeably from left to right, and a massive lake right of the green. This closer will test the best women’s and men’s college golfers when Grayhawk hosts the NCAA Division 1 Women’s and Men’s Golf Championship for three consecutive years starting in 2020.

SCOTTSDALE GOLF CONCIERGES

Thinking about a golf trip to Scottsdale? Use the services of local experts, or “golf concierges,” to save you time, money and plenty of hassle. Here are some tips from Steve Nicodemus of Pinnacle Golf Vacations and Anthony Trapani of Phoenix Scottsdale Golf.

By Tom Mackin

WHEN TO VISIT
“December is a great time,” says Trapani. “Hotels and courses really lower prices for us to drive business before Christmas. April and May are also good for pricing.” Nicodemus recommends September as another sweet spot. “Course conditions bounce back well from the summer after monsoon season.”

PLAN AHEAD
A must, but especially for the whole month of March. “There’s spring training and other events that take up space then,” said Trapani. “Call us at least three months in advance, especially for larger groups.” Nicodemus adds, “For groups of 11 players or less, we can book tee times 90 days out or less; for groups of 12 or more, tee times can be booked up to a year in advance.”

CONSIDER OVERLOOKED COURSES
TPC Scottsdale, Troon North, Grayhawk and We-Ko-Pa remain must-plays, but there are other good value courses with memorable desert scenery. Trapani points to Rancho Manana, Ak-Chin Southern Dunes, the Golf Club of Estrella, Verrado and Lookout Mountain. Nicodemus suggests Legend Trail, Verde River Golf & Social Club, Wickenburg Ranch and Whirlwind Golf Club as other worthy options.

WATCH FOR OVERSEEDING
Most courses feature cart-path-only conditions in October and November due to the overseeding process, when turf is reseeded with rye grass to bring the dormant Bermuda grass back to its shiny green color. “The exact date when overseeding ends depends on the how the turf matures and grows out, and that can be different for every course,” said Trapani.

BOOK GREAT ACCOMMODATIONS
Resort and hotel options are endless, including golf-centric properties like the Fairmont Scottsdale Princess, The Phoenician, The Boulders and The Westin Kierland, just to name a few. But groups also are opting for private properties, according to Nicodemus. “There are four or five private residences that can accommodate eight to 12 golfers, including a phenomenal property at The Boulders and another property near Old Town with five bedrooms, a hot tub and a golf simulator,” said Nicodemus. 🌵
Setting the course for elevated golf, understated luxury and legendary adventure.

Camelback Golf Club offers one of the most spectacular golf experiences in the Southwest. Experience 36-holes of championship golf including the award-winning Ambiente course by Hurdzan Fry Environmental Golf Design, and the classically-designed Arthur Hills Padre course.

OUTDOOR ADVENTURE

Play in the Desert
If you’re tapped out on Scottsdale pool time (hey, it could happen!), embark on an outdoor adventure just minutes from your hotel. You’ll connect on a visceral level with the world-renowned Sonoran Desert while mountain biking on wildflower-lined trails, horseback riding through a saguaro “forest,” SUP’ing or kayaking on the Salt River in search of wild horses, or learning the ropes of rock climbing. For something less physical, ride the desert trails in an authentic Hummer H1. These seat-of-your-pants experiences coupled with real-time learning make for stories worth sharing.

Number One

MOUNTAIN BIKING IN THE MCDOWELLS
Scottsdale is ringed by mountains whose rolling foothills are crisscrossed with trails that range from easy to expert. You can rent quality bikes and gear from local outfitters for a solo adventure, or join a guided half- or full-day tour. On my last trip, I opted to ride on my own along the crunchy granite trails of McDowell Mountain Park, which is especially beautiful when spring flowers are on display. See pg. 112 for outfitters.
Number Two

OFF-ROAD ROAMING IN A HUMMER
Tap your adrenaline reserves by riding rocky Sonoran Desert back roads in a Hummer H1, the military-inspired “go anywhere” four-wheel drive. Our Stellar Adventures driver, Mitch, is an ex-Marine with a wicked sense of humor. On Stellar’s Advanced Stage 1 Tour we wet-crossed the Agua Fria River, clung to steep rutted slopes and crept through sand and over ledges that would rip out the guts from regular street SUVs. We even caught a glimpse of a red-tailed hawk perched on a saguaro arm. Stellar also offers sunset tours, and less bouncy trips than ours, but I distinctly recall giggling as our butts bounced in the air, even while wearing seat belts! It was worth the bumpy ride. stellaradventures.com

Number Three

HOT AIR BALLOONING
A far quieter way to experience the Sonoran Desert is from a hot air balloon, drifting silently above the saguaros and coyotes. Rise before the sun and join your pilot and fellow flyers for matchless views of the distant peaks and maybe even Lake Pleasant. And when you land, the tradition includes a catered breakfast served on linen-covered tables, with stories of the grand history of ballooning. It’s a high-flying and unique adventure that’s both exhilarating and calming. See pg. 112 for outfitters.

Number Four

SUP’ING AND KAYAKING THE SALT RIVER
Just 30 minutes east of Old Town, the Lower Salt River glides by statuesque saguaros in the lee of sheer cliffs. Take a tour with REI Co-op Experiences and you can paddle your duckie (kayak) or stand-up paddleboard and watch for wild horses and red-tailed hawks as you splash through a riffle or two under a brilliant blue sky. There are no rapids, so you can just paddle and drift as the knowledgeable guides from REI share Salt River tales. The cool water, scenic views and laughter make the river time go far too quickly. destinations.rei.com/arizona
Saguaro Lake Guest Ranch

Stay and Play alongside Scottsdale’s Salt River

BY KERRICK JAMES

This hidden gem lies about 30 minutes northeast of Old Town Scottsdale, nestled on the banks of the Lower Salt River. Founded in 1928 to house workers building the nearby Stewart Mountain Dam, this peaceful one-time fishing lodge now boasts 19 restored cabins, a large family-style dining room and a classic main lodge room. These 35 acres are a place of respite for families, couples and groups, offering outdoor adventures, a heated pool for year-round swimming and a precious dark-sky setting that astronomy buffs covet.

Ranch guests can book horseback rides and rent kayaks or inner tubes directly from the ranch. For me, the kayaking is especially intriguing, starting below the dam and paddling in solitude under the sheer Bulldog Cliffs across from the ranch. Go for a relaxing 2.5-hour paddle to the Foxtail put-in, where a shuttle will return you to the ranch.

But my favorite experience here was riding the rope swing out over the cooling waters of the Salt River, letting go...and being a kid once more.

sagurolakeranch.com

Number Five

HORSEBACK RIDING WITH WINDWALKER EXPEDITIONS

Only in Arizona can saguaro groves be found in a national forest, and riding an Arabian horse beneath these soaring cacti is unforgettable. Windwalker Expeditions offers guided, custom rides on their superb horses, and, if you’re skilled and experienced, you can trot, canter or gallop at will. Listen as your guide weaves tales of the Native peoples, U.S. Cavalry and Hollywood royalty who made movies here in the heyday of “horse operas.”

ROUND-UP

Who knew learning could be this much fun?

BY ROGER NAYLOR
SURROUNDED BY RICH HISTORY AND DESERT BEAUTY, IT’S NO WONDER SCOTTSDALE MUSEUMS CONTAIN SUCH ENDLESS DELIGHTS. GO SEE FOR YOURSELF.

SCOTTSDALE MUSEUM OF CONTEMPORARY ART
Arizona’s only museum dedicated to modern works of art, design and architecture also symbolizes what makes Scottsdale such a special place. The Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art (SMoCA) sits on a 2-acre landscaped park dotted with fountains and public sculptures in the middle of Old Town. It’s the kind of downtown jewel most cities can only dream about.

The minimalist building includes a rare Skyspace by famed artist James Turrell, where visitors marvel at the ever-changing light illuminating the desert lands. SMoCA’s permanent collection features more than 2,000 pieces. Up to a dozen exhibitions rotate continually so that the most innovative and imaginative works of art are always on display.

WESTERN SPIRIT: SCOTTSDALE’S MUSEUM OF THE WEST
Don’t be fooled by the contemporary design. Walking into Scottsdale’s Museum of the West is a step back in time. Yet it somehow remains rooted in the present. Stunning Western art sets the tone, bringing desert sunsets, snow-capped mountains and lonely prairies to life. Docent-led tours of this Smithsonian Affiliate occur throughout the day.

Ongoing exhibitions feature historic artifacts and cultural treasures. Visitors will find six centuries of rare Hopi pottery, pristine Navajo chiefs’ blankets, a collection of working cowboy gear and saloon memorabilia. If you weren’t in love with the mystique of the Old West before, you will be before you leave.

HEARD MUSEUM
From extremely modest beginnings—it was started in 1929 to house the collection of its founders—the Heard Museum has continued to grow and receives international acclaim for its collection of Native American artifacts and artwork. This Smithsonian Affiliate gives a contemporary voice to Native cultures. In addition to the high-quality collections, the Heard is renowned for its educational programming and vibrant festivals.

The Heard Museum Shop is a treasure trove of amazing, authentic work. Here you’ll find jewelry, pottery, textiles, carvings, paintings and more. The majority of pieces in the extensive inventory are purchased directly from the artists.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENT MUSEUM

There’s probably not a lot of toe-tapping at most museums. But everybody gets their groove on at the Musical Instrument Museum (MIM). Displaying more than 7,000 instruments collected from 200 countries and territories, this is the world’s only global musical instrument museum.

Permanent galleries are organized by geography and are complemented by lavish special exhibitions. Most displays are enhanced by state-of-the-art audio and video technologies that allow guests to see the instruments, hear their sounds and observe them being played. As you move from one exhibit to the next, your wireless headset picks up the audio of the screen as you approach. Guests even get to jam with a range of axes in the Experience Gallery.

SCOTTSDALE RODEO MUSEUM

Anyone who’s enjoyed the drama of the annual Parada del Sol Rodeo will want to visit one of the more recent additions to the museum scene. Scottsdale Rodeo Museum opened in February 2019 and is housed, appropriately enough, in the old Noriega Livery Stable. Visitors will find never-before-seen artifacts of Scottsdale’s rodeo history including saddles, ropes and other historic gear. Vintage photographs, posters, and art are also on display.
SEE THE WEST
FROM A WHOLE NEW PERSPECTIVE

Stories have the power to inspire, change history and celebrate cultures. At Western Spirit: Scottsdale’s Museum of the West, we bring authentic stories to life through Western and Native American art, artifacts and living cultures. Visit our Smithsonian Affiliate destination that connects visitors of all ages to the Western lifestyle — past, present and future.

ABOUT HORSES

From the annual Scottsdale Arabian Horse Show to the Parada del Sol Parade and Rodeo, Scottsdale is a dream destination for horse enthusiasts.

But did you know that the city’s acclaimed public art collection has champion steeds of its own? Saddle up and let’s ride! Here’s a roundup of some local showstoppers.

WATER MARK – INDIAN BEND WASH
Haddad|Drugan’s massive artwork is a marvel of engineering and imagination. Clad in shiny aluminum, five jumbo-sized equine gargoyles stand watch along the road and adjacent flood-control greenbelt. During periodic deluges, water spouts from each horse’s mouth. (The critters also gush holiday spirit from Thanksgiving to New Year’s when they’re decked out with festive wreaths!)

HORSESHOE FALLS – MARSHALL WAY & INDIAN SCHOOL ROAD
Michael Maglich’s quirky urban oasis invites lucky passersby to kick back on its roomy horseshoe-shaped bench, surrounded by totem-like stacks of – you guessed it – more horseshoes! Fogging misters make it the ideal spot to cool off.

JACK KNIFE – MARSHALL WAY & MAIN STREET
Rising from a traffic circle in the heart of the Old Town gallery district, Ed Mell’s bronze cowboy astride a bucking bronco was modeled after Scottsdale’s official city seal. With his minimalist, geometric style, the artist imbues this classic emblem of the Old West with a contemporary vibe.

PASSING THE LEGACY – SCOTTSDALE WATERFRONT
Long before Amazon Prime, the Pony Express offered the quickest deliveries in the land! Each year, the Hashknife Pony Express recreates this legendary run, delivering letters by horseback some 200 miles across Arizona to Western Spirit: Scottsdale’s Museum of the West. Celebrating this tradition, Herb Mignery’s bronze “Passing the Legacy” portrays an original Pony Express rider handing off the mail to his modern counterpart.

IMPULSION – WESTWORLD OF SCOTTSDALE (right)
This premier equestrian event center is home to the city’s newest – and tallest – monument to horse power. Towering 24 feet, Jeff Zischke’s dynamic, abstracted horse built from stainless steel tubes sparkles at night with LED lighting.

It’s fun – and free – to explore Scottsdale’s public art! Learn more at ScottsdalePublicArt.org.

Join us for the 2020 City of Scottsdale Gold Palette ArtWalk Series

January 16:
Demonstrate! ... And Doughnuts ArtWalk

February 6:
Western Week ArtWalk

March 5:
Native Spirit ArtWalk

April 16:
45th Season Official Celebration: Art + Chocolate

The Scottsdale Gold Palette ArtWalk Schedule is on select Thursdays from 6:30 pm-9:30 pm, and will feature refreshments, demonstrations, unique local art and jewelry, entertainment and more.

The Scottsdale Arts District is located between Scottsdale Road and Goldwater on Main street and on Marshall way between 5th Avenue and Indian School Road.

For more information visit: scottsdalegalleries.com.
Visitors can experience Scottsdale’s bustling art scene every Thursday night when dozens of galleries and shops in the Arts District open their doors from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. for the Scottsdale ArtWalk. Duck in and out of galleries at your own pace, talk to the artists and learn about their work. Many galleries offer refreshments, and if you’re lucky, you’ll catch an artist painting, sketching or creating jewelry.

This season, the Scottsdale ArtWalk turns 45, and art lovers near and far are poised to celebrate. According to Scottsdale Gallery Association President French Thompson of French Designer Jeweler, “Scottsdale’s event is the longest-running, continuous art walk anywhere in the United States.”

The Scottsdale Gallery Association held a kickoff event in October 2019 and plans to wrap up the 45th anniversary celebration with a special Art + Chocolate event on April 16, 2020, featuring local chocolate tastings paired with art exhibitions at galleries along Main Street and Marshall Way.

In addition to the regular Thursday-night ArtWalk, the Scottsdale Gallery Association and the City of Scottsdale present the Gold Palette ArtWalk series on select Thursdays. These events run from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., each with a special theme, such as Demonstrate!... And Doughnuts (Jan. 16), featuring doughnut samples, bagpipe performances and artist demonstrations; Western Week (Feb. 6), exploring Scottsdale’s Wild West roots; and Native Spirit (March 5), which pays tribute to Native American artists and their culture and history.

In addition to the galleries, Western Spirit: Scottsdale’s Museum of the West and the Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art (SMoCA) stay open late on Thursday evenings and have gift shops stocked with unique and imaginative items.

SHOPPING
Hunt for Treasure
Scottsdale’s Best Address Keeps Getting Better

BY MARILYN HAWKES
Scottsdale Fashion Square has long been touted as one of the premier shopping destinations in the Southwest, boasting luxury retailers, first-rate restaurants and top-notch entertainment options. And while the high-end shopping center could simply rest on its laurels after the debut of a new luxury wing in 2018, Scottsdale Fashion Square continues to expand its extraordinary portfolio of more than 200 shops and restaurants.

INTERACTIVE ART

In 2019, Scottsdale Fashion Square added several non-retail clients to its growing roster of tenants, including Industrious, a premium shared-office-space concept situated next to the flagship Apple Store; and Wonderspaces, an interactive art experience housed in a 16,000-square-foot space that will feature three new shows each year. A recent exhibition showcased a virtual-reality dinner party and an immersive installation with 8,064 dazzling multicolored lights.

BRICK-AND-MORTAR FIRSTS

Last year, the shopping center snagged several first-to-market, digitally native retail brands that include Morphe cosmetics, UNTUCKit men’s clothing and INDOCHINO made-to-measure suits. In addition, popular brands Peloton and Ring recently debuted in the bustling Apple Store wing.

BUZZY NEW EATS

The last year also has brought a new crop of restaurants, from Tocaya Organica, a healthy, fast-casual Mexican café with a beachy feel, to Toca Madera, its upscale sister restaurant serving reimagined traditional Mexican cuisine using locally sourced ingredients.

Also new in 2019 were Zinqué, a Paris-inspired eatery and community hub, where guests can eat, drink wine and gather; and juice-bar-meets-café SunLife Organics, offering organic... foods, smoothies and a curated selection of clothing, gift items, accessories and packaged snacks.

The lavish shopping mecca will continue its expansion in 2020 by adding a duo of first-class restaurants: Nobu, innovative Japanese food from celebrity chef Nobu Matsuhisa; and Los Angeles–based FARMHOUSE, a seasonal “seed-to-plate” concept housed in cozy farmhouse digs.

HEALTHY LIVING

The center also will welcome Equinox, an exclusive, award-winning health club that hangs its hat on personal training, group fitness programming and holistic healthy-living programs. Situated near the luxury wing, Equinox will include a member lounge, full-service spa, café, and athletic and leisure wear shop highlighting exclusive brands.

LUXE ACCOMMODATIONS

To round out Scottsdale Fashion Square’s new additions, Caesars Entertainment recently broke ground on Caesars Republic Scottsdale, the company’s first non-gaming hotel in the United States. The 11-story glass structure will have 265 rooms, a seventh-floor rooftop pool and bar, and two restaurants by celebrity chef Giada De Laurentiis: Luna, showcasing Italian fare with a California influence; and Pronto, a fast-and-casual concept. Opening is slated for fall 2021.

4 ZAK’S CHOCOLATE
Scottsdale isn’t quite Montreux, Switzerland, when it comes to chocolate, but locally based chocolatiers Maureen and Jim Elitzak of Zak’s Chocolate have earned international recognition for their house-made confections. The duo is not only winning recognition, they’re also winning awards for their artisan chocolate, and after sampling a bite or two, you’ll understand why. Everything is done by hand, and that includes sorting the ethically sourced cocoa beans and wrapping the single-origin dark chocolate bars. Zak’s has collaborated with local businesses, from breweries to coffee shops, to incorporate unique ingredients in their chocolates, which makes for an end product that’s uniquely Arizona. zakschocolate.com

DINING
Eat Like a Local
ROLLING SLOPES covered in grapevines, tasting rooms dotting the landscape of picturesque wine country, celebratory festivals with winemakers pouring their wares. No, these aren’t scenes from neighboring states. They’re right here in Arizona, where we have more than 100 bonded wineries. Luckily for us, Scottsdale’s chefs are embracing the fruits of these vintners’ labors and pairing their signature dishes with our award-winning wines.

Craft 64 celebrates all things local – from daily farmers’ market specials and toppings on their award-winning pizzas to wines, spirits and craft beer, including their own house brews. Try pairing the signature Aji, a spicy white pizza topped with house-smoked sausage, handmade mozzarella and baby spinach, with Dos Cabezas Meskeoli, an aromatic white blend made from grapes grown in Willcox, Arizona. Its notes of bright citrus and fresh minerality make it the ideal partner for the pizza’s aji sauce, an addictive blend of fresh Arizona jalapeños, lemon juice, garlic and olive oil.

Merkin Vineyards is the newest Arizona wine-tasting room to come to Old Town Scottsdale (Merkin’s other tasting room is in Verde Valley wine country two hours north). To the delight of locals and tourists alike, the kitchen also turns out fantastic dishes showcasing the harvests from owner Maynard Keenan’s gardens and orchards. Chupacabra Bubbles, a 50:50 blend of Malvasia and Chardonnay, made its debut in the spring of 2019, and it’s a perfect complement to both lighter dishes and heartier ones, such as the Duroc pork belly with smoked ricotta, Merkin greens, seasonal orchard fruit and tangy agrodolce. “It cleanses your palate with every bite, and the mellow bubbles match the brightness of the fruit and greens,” notes General Manager Jim Cunningham.

At Cartwright’s Modern Cuisine, chef-owner Brett Vibber and his team forage desert ingredients and source native growers for a true taste of terroir. Take his pan-seared sockeye salmon with Rhiba Farms sprouted wheatberries, Navajo steamed corn and Ramona Farms pink corn. “We can’t take it off the menu,” says Vibber of the restaurant’s signature dish. To pair, pour a glass of crisp and vibrant...
Wine Tasting in Old Town

If this article has piqued your interest in Arizona wine, a stroll along the Old Town Scottsdale Wine Trail is a must! The trail highlights tasting rooms from six award-winning Arizona wineries and is the perfect opportunity to sample the fruits of their labor.

The best way to learn about a winemaker’s range is with a tasting flight, which typically includes five small pours and, often, a take-home insignia glass. Pre-set flights may be all white, all red, or a mix, and are usually poured in succession from light to medium to full-bodied. Some tasting rooms allow you to choose your own pours, and most waive the tasting fee if you purchase a bottle.

One thing Old Town’s tasting rooms have in common is that they all welcome beginning and experienced tasters alike. They also encourage you to linger and enjoy a glass of your favorite. Pull up a stool at the bar, enjoy a sunny patio or settle in on a cozy couch. And don’t be afraid to try something new. A cab lover? Learn about Mourvèdre, one of Arizona’s signature grapes. A white wine fan? Try an aromatic Malvasia Bianca. Above all, have fun, ask questions and enjoy your exploration.

See pg. 182 or download your free Scottsdale Wine Trail Map at ScottsdaleGuides.com.

Sky Island Viognier from LDV Winery’s estate in the Chiricahua Mountain foothills of southeastern Arizona.

No spotlight on Arizona wine pairings can be made without a stop at FnB, a beloved local favorite where Pavle Milic curated the first all-Arizona wine list (and has since started his own label) with partner Charleen Badman, who was recently crowned James Beard Best Chef: Southwest. A seasonal menu translates into spectacular pairings such as a colorful watermelon, shrimp and fennel salad complemented by Callaghan Vineyards Lisa, an aromatic blend of Viognier, Malvasia Bianca and Riesling named for winemaker Kent Callaghan’s wife Lisa.

The next time you stop into one of Scottsdale’s wonderful restaurants, look for an Arizona wine to pair with your dish and discover a partnership that sings of the Valley of the Sun.

Superior steaks, with a view to match.

The authentic steakhouse experience has arrived with a hefty array of hand-cut selections of Prime and Wagyu butcher’s steaks, finished in the hottest charcoal oven in the desert. The Josper Oven works on extremely high heat hardwood charcoal, imparting a unique crust to steaks, locking in flavor and tenderness unlike any other cooking method.

Beyond beef, a substantial menu boasts towers of iced seafood, shareable appetizers, crisp salads, impeccably-prepared entrées and mouth-watering desserts perfectly matched with exceptional wines.

For happy hour or dinner, enjoy unparalleled views of Camelback Mountain from inside the bar, the restaurant or on the outdoor patios with cozy fire pits. Private dining rooms are available for special occasions.

Dinner & a Show

BY CHRISTINA BARRUETA / PHOTOS BY BRITTANY & LEO MORALES
With our thriving nightlife and culinary scene in Scottsdale, there are hundreds of opportunities for dinner or a show—but, luckily for us, we don't have to choose. Here are some lively spots where dinner and entertainment are brought together for a one-stop dining experience.

DUELING PIANOS

Both resort guests and locals gather at The Phoenician Tavern for Saturday night's Dueling Pianos. The rotating roster of talent invites guests to join in as they face off and perform songs for a lively crowd whose requests can range from Guns 'N' Roses to Billy Joel. What to order? I'm still thinking of the superb fish and chips and the French dip with smoked Wagyu tri-tip.

KNIGHTS IN SHINING ARMOR

For a raucous good time, be transported to the Middle Ages as soon as you cross the drawbridge at Medieval Times in the Talking Stick Entertainment District. Tickets include a four-course meal designed to be eaten sans utensils (for “historic authenticity,” of course) such as soup in handled mugs, roasted chicken, and corn on the cob. Cheer on “your” knight (guests are seated in color-coded sections) while watching the show, which includes prancing Andalusian horses, a soaring royal falcon and a colorful jousting tournament.

ENCHANTING FLAMENCO

For an exotic journey, travel to Spain at two of Scottsdale’s favorites while enjoying traditional flamenco music. At Talavera at the Four Seasons Scottsdale resort, diners can feast on fantastic globally accented Spanish dishes by Chef Samantha Sanz (a recent nominee for a James Beard Rising Star Chef award) while enjoying the music of flamenco guitarist Alex Hristov on Thursday evenings.

You'll find Tapas Papa Frita in Scottsdale’s Waterfront District. On Friday and Saturday nights, the lovely talents of acclaimed flamenco dancer Yumi LaRosa draw the crowds, who also come to dine on the multi-regional Spanish menu. I suggest starting with a glass of Txakoli, a crisp dry white, as you graze on tapas such as Pastel a la Porrusald (a Basque puff pastry leek tart) or Gambas al Pil Pil (an Andalusian dish of shrimp, garlic and guindilla peppers).
SULTRY SOUNDS
If your plans lean more toward a relaxing night out or a romantic dinner date, make a reservation for the award-winning Italian dishes of Marcellino Ristorante. Here, Marcellino’s wife Sima Verzino and her All-Star Trio treat patrons to soulful renditions of jazz classics and bluesy ballads. “I perform music that encompasses my lifetime in the arts,” shares Verzino, who was an international recording artist when she met her husband and was recently invited to perform at the historic Teatro Marcellus in Rome.

A LAUGH A MINUTE
If an evening of laughter is on your agenda, The House of Comedy on High Street is the venue for you. In addition to seating at community tables to watch some of the country’s best comedians, guests can dine in cozy booths or at tables for six. The exclusive three-course dinner-and-a-show package offers three salads, entrées such as shrimp and sole with lemon caper sauce or the juicy 8-ounce flat iron steak I ordered on my last visit, and dessert.

CHEERS FOR

CHURROS

By Marilyn Hawkes / Photos by Halie Sutton
If the aroma of sweet cinnamon sugar and fried dough entices you and you’re looking for a Southwestern dessert to cap off your meal, check out five of Scottsdale’s best churros.

THE MISSION

Churro fans will swoon over The Mission’s espresso churros, served eight to an order. The coffee-laden delights are fried and then tossed in cinnamon and brown sugar while still warm and served with an Ibarra chocolate milkshake made with local Sweet Republic vanilla gelato. Is the shake for drinking or dipping? Either way, The Mission’s churros are downright irresistible. themissionaz.com

CIEN AGAVES

After a hearty Mexican meal at Old Town’s Cien Agaves, you’ll need a churro sundae to seal the deal. This sweet treat starts with a princely scoop of vanilla bean ice cream covered with a shot of fluffy whipped cream and then showered with caramel sauce. Anchored by warm cinnamon-sugar-flecked churros, this sundae just might rock your world. cienagaves.com

RITA’S CANTINA & BAR

If you like your dessert with a little kick, try Rita’s churros at JW Marriott Scottsdale Camelback Inn Resort. The impossibly light cinnamon-sugar-shrouded puffs are accompanied by a pot of spicy melted chocolate dip laced with chili flakes, cayenne pepper and cinnamon powder. For those who want to tone it down, the churros also come with a bowl of sweet caramel sauce. Mix and match or go it alone. camelbackinn.com

BARRIO QUEEN

At Barrio Queen, churros come four to an order along with three mini scoops of vanilla bean ice cream. Dusted with cinnamon sugar, the crispy fried dough is stuffed with vanilla-laced cajeta caramel sauce that oozes out the side. Finished with drizzles of Mexican chocolate and creamy caramel sauce and then scattered with chopped pecans, these churros are among Scottsdale’s finest. barrioqueen.com

LON’S AT THE HERMOSA INN

Executive Chef Jeremy Pacheco’s churros are so much more than a dessert – they’re an event dished up with flair. The server presents a wrought-iron tree covered with puffy churros twisted around the metal branches just begging to be unfurled. To complement the churros, Pacheco provides fresh strawberries, velvety horchata ice cream and a ramekin of melted Mexican chocolate for dipping. hermosainn.com

FAST FACT

In Spain, churros are dipped in hot chocolate or café con leche and eaten for breakfast!
Arizona ranches produce some of the best beef in the country, so it’s no surprise that Scottsdale is home to a number of award-winning and highly praised steakhouses. From North Scottsdale to Old Town and the places in between, these are the steakhouses worth savoring.

BY LAUREN TOPOR REICHERT
BOURBON STEAK – This North Scottsdale Michael Mina steakhouse on the lush grounds of the Fairmont Scottsdale Princess resort specializes in quality chops and fine dining fare. Bourbon Steak provides a robust selection of angus beef as well as Japanese and American Wagyu, including Mina’s signature Wagyu trio. In true Michael Mina fashion, each steak is tempered in butter and finished over a wood flame.
FOGO DE CHÃO CHURRASCARIA
The art of Brazilian churrasco is a centuries-old grilling tradition from the gauchos of Southern Brazil. It’s applied here at Fogo de Chão in Scottsdale where guests can dine on decadent cuts of select meats like beef ribs, sirloins, ribeye, filet mignon and Fogo’s signature picanha steak delivered direct to the table by a friendly staff of gauchos.

J&G STEAKHOUSE
Located at The Phoenician resort, J&G Steakhouse offers an impressive selection of steakhouse fare with panoramic views of the Valley to match. The award-winning steakhouse is marked by its floor-to-ceiling windows which provide an unparalleled picture of the surrounding desert landscape. J&G also offers year-round al fresco dining on its fifth-floor patio, which features fire-pits and comfortable seating options.

MASTRO’S CITY HALL
This high-end steakhouse delivers a parade of chops and steaks ranging from the petite filet to a 48-ounce porterhouse, plus drool-worthy sides like lobster mashed potatoes, all served in a swanky setting decorated with classic white tablecloths and floating art-glass chandeliers. The prime cuts may be the stars of the show, but it’s Mastro’s signature warm butter cake that earns a standing ovation at the meal’s final curtain.

MAPLE & ASH
Chicago’s award-winning Maple & Ash recently debuted its first location outside of the Windy City right here at the Scottsdale Waterfront. The contemporary steakhouse is notable for its wood-fire cooking methods and churns out staples such as Wagyu filet mignon and dry-aged chops. Accompaniments like roasted bone marrow, penta crème blue cheese and the trademark beefed-up butter are there for the choosing. Bring your appetite. Maple & Ash also offers an unmissable hearth-roasted seafood tower piled high with prawns, oysters, clams, scallops and Alaskan king crab.

LINCOLN
Lincoln, nestled in the heart of Paradise Valley at the JW Marriott Camelback Inn, serves up steakhouse classics like prime and Wagyu butcher’s steaks, sustainably sourced market fish, and a variety of gourmet vegetarian dishes, including cauliflower steak and butternut squash filet, in a contemporary indoor-outdoor setting. Each butcher’s steak is seared over a Josper charcoal oven, resulting in a cut that’s prepared to perfection.

If your perfect night on the town includes trendy dance clubs, VIP bottle service and confetti drops, Scottsdale’s Old Town Entertainment District is your go-to spot. But your options for after-dark adventures in Scottsdale don’t stop there. Here are our top seven picks for a memorable night on the town.

GOLF & GAMING
This combo is perfect for a sporty date night or an outing with a group of friends. Start at Topgolf where three levels of high-tech bays with cushy seating and food and beverage service let you easily combine socializing with practicing your swing. Your next destination is the casino at Talking Stick Resort, that brightly lit building just beyond Topgolf’s driving range. Try your luck with the slot machines or put on your best game face for the poker room. Enjoy a nightcap and stunning city views at Orange Sky Lounge on the resort’s 15th floor.

topgolf.com / talkingstickresort.com

GARDEN MAGIC
Surround yourself with the natural beauty of cacti and succulents at the Desert Botanical Garden. Evening social events like Corks & Cactus feature wine or spirit tastings, while the Music in the Garden concert series highlights the best local bands and musicians – all under a magical starry sky. Treat yourself to dinner on the patio at Gertrude’s before the event. The Garden’s on-site restaurant Gertrude’s is known for its seasonal cuisine, Arizona wine and craft beer lists, and enviable sweets menu.
dbg.org / gertrudesrestaurant.net
Number Three

WINE NIGHTS

Old Town has become a mecca for tasting rooms from Arizona's premier wineries. From Rhône varietals at LDV Winery and the flagship Rule of Three at Carlson Creek, to Italian and Spanish varieties at Merkin Vineyards, you’ll discover the robust flavors of the Arizona terroir. Most tasting rooms offer small bites to accompany your wine, making it ideal for a relaxing – and romantic – evening of grazing and sipping. See pg. 182 or download the Wine Trail map at ScottsdaleGuides.com, where you’ll also find a map of the Scottsdale Ale Trail for your favorite beer lover. ScottsdaleGuides.com

Number Five

ARCHITECTURE AFTER DARK

Frank Lloyd Wright’s Taliesin West is an architectural masterpiece by day, but it truly shines under the glow of the Sonoran Desert moon. The Night Lights tour takes place three times each evening on Fridays and Saturdays. Your guide will regale you with stories of the legendary architect and his apprentices as you tour Wright’s private living quarters, theater and cabaret. Keep your eyes peeled for the fire-breathing dragon, which makes a dazzling appearance on every tour. franklloydwright.org

Number Four

CREATIVE GENIUS

Unleash your creative side with an evening of wine and painting at Art of Merlot in Old Town’s historic Arts District! Great for couples or a girls’ night out, this BYOB (bring your own bottle) joint lets you sip on wine or beer while you paint. You can choose your own masterpiece to recreate, paint your pet or go the traditional route with an instructor-led class. Owner Audra and her team of artists and teachers provide uplifting encouragement that’s sure to leave you feeling like Picasso! artofmerlot.com
Number Seven
SMALL-BATCH SPIRITS
Old Town’s Blue Clover Distillery is small but mighty (and growing!). Owners Weston Holm and Duane and Scott Koch make the premium small-batch gin and vodka they use to create craft cocktails like Lucky Lady (Blue Clover gin, blackberry Crème de Mure, lemon and simple syrup) and Scottsdale Sunset (Blue Clover grapefruit vodka, lemon, Aperol, Prosecco and lavender bitters). Out with friends? Kick things up a notch with the Mule Thumper, billed as “123 ounces of pure fun”! bluecloverdistillery.com

Number Six
ART & MARTINIS
This contemporary twist on happy hour begins with a late afternoon exploring cutting-edge art, architecture and design at the Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art (SMoCA). Rotating exhibitions by global artists at the top of their game are sure to spark lively discussions. Check SMoCA’s calendar for evening events and artist talks. Keep the conversation going over martinis and elevated pub grub at AZ88, a few doors down. This swanky restaurant is well known for its own rotating art installations. smoca.org / az88.com
Has singing in the shower lost its luster? Are you ready to unleash your inner diva? Or maybe you want to belt out DJ Khaled’s “We Da Best” while your friends rap like the “gangstas” they are. Whatever your karaoke dream is, these Old Town Scottsdale hotspots can make it a reality.

THE GRAPEVINE RESTAURANT & KARAOKE BAR
This Scottsdale landmark is known for its quirky regulars, talented karaoke pros and hosts who have become local celebrities. The bar is in full “sing” seven nights a week and welcomes first-timers as well as seasoned songsters. There’s a full menu of pub grub and liquid courage to calm your nerves, as well as a friendly crowd that applauds enthusiastically for both the best and worst singers in the room.

THE DRAGON
Entering The Dragon feels no different than strolling into a swanky nightclub. However, with a song inventory that’s 25,000+ titles strong, there’s no doubt that The Dragon takes karaoke seriously. The luxe private suites and bottle service will have you feeling like a rock star before the mic hits your hand. The Dragon also offers an impressive menu of Asian-inspired cocktails and lite bites.

GEISHA A GO GO
Feeling fancy but frugal? Geisha A Go Go boasts free private rooms all day Monday through Thursday, as well as Fridays through Sunday’s from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. Their sushi bar and cocktail program are as on-point as their pop and rock ’n’ roll song list, and their rooms are comfortable for both small squads and large groups.

And remember, the best karaoke nights come down to the company you keep, so bring (or make) friends who will cheer you on and be the “whoo-hoo” or shot-of-tequila partners you need.

BY BIANNCA DOMINGUEZ
There’s something perennially festive about the effervescence of sparkling wine. While a glass of champagne defines New Year’s Eve and milestone events, adding your favorite bubbly to a refreshing cocktail is the perfect way to celebrate all year round.

The Bubble Room is a champagne lounge and nightclub tucked away above Wasted Grain in Old Town Scottsdale. With a 17-variety champagne list, it’s just as appropriate for ringing in the New Year as it is for ordering a summery cocktail. Try the French 75, a deceptively light and citrusy blend of gin, lemon juice and champagne.

At Second Story Liquor Bar, Misha Jones has created his own delicious variation of the French 75, substituting the traditional gin or cognac with Belle Paire, a lovely pear liqueur from Provence that adds an elegant fruitiness that will have you ordering another (and another).

The Fizzy Lifting Drink at ZuZu at the Hotel Valley Ho is an inventive take on an Aperol Spritz, “but the bubbles on this one last a lot longer,” says beverage director PJ Baron. That’s because he crowns his Aperol, club soda and Prosecco libation with an airy Campari-infused blood orange foam.

For a superb 1800s-era champagne cocktail, head to the Fairmont Scottsdale Princess. Even if you haven’t booked a room, you’ll want to visit to enjoy Beverage Director Matthew Doerr’s expertly crafted cocktails, including the classic Champagne Cocktail made with Mumm Napa sparkling wine poured over an Angostura bitters-soaked sugar cube.

The Kir Royale is named for Canon Félix Kir, a war hero of the French Resistance. And what better spot to enjoy this beloved French cocktail than at Zinc Bistro. Take a seat at the zinc-topped bar in this Paris-inspired restaurant for the iconic union of champagne and Chambord, an aromatic black raspberry liqueur.

Whether it’s American sparkling, French Champagne, Italian prosecco or Spanish cava in your cocktail, these Scottsdale sparklers are guaranteed to turn any occasion into something special.
FAST FACT:

There are approximately 49 million bubbles in the average bottle of Champagne.

When the sun goes down, every hour is happy hour in Old Town Scottsdale. More than 100 nightlife options – from sophisticated restaurants and wine bars to über-chic dance clubs – can be found nestled in Old Town’s walkable neighborhoods. Here are some local favorites grouped by weekend closing times (weeknight hours vary).
GETTING AROUND

Explore the City
Looking for a fun way to get around town? Here are a few of our favorites that will get you where you want to go with plenty of good times along the way!
GETTING AROUND

Number One
LET THE EXPERTS DRIVE
Scottsdale’s ground transportation providers offer luxury sedan and limousine transportation throughout the city. In addition to airport pick-up and point-to-point transportation, they’re also the perfect choice for pub crawls, wine tours and nights on the town. See business listings on page 191.

Number Two
RIDE A GOLF CART
JoyRidesAZ provides golf cart transportation in Old Town and beyond, as well as a variety of guided experiences ranging from city and culinary tours to bar crawls and an introduction to Old Town’s best Instagram walls. Want to explore Old Town without the structure of a tour? JoyRidesAZ offers personal drivers who will escort you and up to four friends per cart for an evening of wine tasting, dining and pub-hopping (reservations required). joyridesaz.com

Number Four
TAKE THE TROLLEY
For a retro way to explore, hop aboard the free Old Town Trolley. The trolley runs daily from 10 a.m. to 9:25 p.m., with stops throughout Old Town. If you’re in town on the second Saturday of the month, be sure to make reservations for the free, guided LocalMotion Trolley Tour. scottsdaleaz.gov/trolley / ultimatearttours.com

Number Five
TRY RIDE SHARE
Lyft and Uber provide round-the-clock service in Scottsdale. Get the apps, then click, pay and go! lyft.com / uber.com

RENT AN E-BIKE (left)
As in, electric bike! Pedego Scottsdale, located in the heart of Old Town’s Fifth Avenue district, rents battery-powered bikes for individuals and groups that let you do as much – or as little – pedaling as you’d like while you explore the local galleries, restaurants, shops and museums. Over at Phat Rides USA, you also can rent electric bikes, as well as two-wheeled Phat electric scooters. Both Pedego Scottsdale and Phat Rides also offer guided tours of Old Town and the surrounding area. pedegoelectricbikes.com / phatridesusa.com
GETTING AROUND

Here’s always something new and exciting happening at Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport, the main facility serving the Scottsdale area. Here are just a few ways Sky Harbor is working to make your travels to and from Scottsdale smoother than ever!

NEW INTERNATIONAL FLIGHTS

• American Airlines added daily nonstop service to Chihuahua, Mexico and expanded its nonstop flights to London to run year-round.
• Eurowings, a Lufthansa Group airline, will offer nonstop flights between Sky Harbor and Frankfurt, Germany beginning April 29, 2020. The flight operates five days a week through November.
• Condor Airlines has expanded its seasonal nonstop service to Frankfurt, adding two days each week in April, then continuing with three-day-a-week service from May through October.
• Volaris has added twice-weekly direct service between Phoenix and Puerto Vallarta.

TERMINAL 3 UPGRADES

Modernizations to Sky Harbor’s Terminal 3 are slated to be complete in 2020. This multi-year renovation project added a new South Concourse and dozens of shops and restaurants, as well as a state-of-the-art Delta Sky Club, the PHX Play-Viation children’s play area and public art installations.

SUSTAINABLE SKY HARBOR

As part of its ongoing commitment to sustainability, Sky Harbor recently replaced grass turf with native desert landscaping, including 435 low-water-use trees and 350 cacti (including 75 saguaros). The new xeriscaping is estimated to reduce water usage by more than 5.3 million gallons per year.

DID YOU KNOW:

• You can exchange currency at Terminal 4; cash is provided from 25 countries.
• More than 400 friendly volunteer Navigators wearing purple jackets help guide travelers through the airport, some accompanied by tail-wagging therapy dogs!
• Sky Harbor offers rotating exhibitions by local artists in Terminals 3 and 4.
• Terminal 4 provides a walk-in urgent care offering X-rays, immunity boosters and treatment for non-life-threatening conditions.

Scottsdale Airport is a premier general aviation airport recognized for providing outstanding service. The airport is an ideal choice for leisure and business travelers with airside vehicle access (have your car waiting upon landing), no ground delays and U.S. Customs U.S.-VISIT Service. The Aviation Business Center features a restaurant, Thunderbird Field II Veterans Memorial, Aviation Department offices and more than 4,100 square feet of reservable meeting and event space. The airport is 9 miles north of Old Town Scottsdale and in close proximity to world-class resorts, restaurants and golf courses. With two exceptional fixed-based operators, Scottsdale Airport is well-equipped to handle all your aviation needs. A new state-of-the-art Jet Aviation branded FBO is anticipated to be in operation by late 2020. The Scottsdale Airpark – the business and industrial area around the airport – is one of the largest employment centers in Arizona, with 2 million square feet of commercial business space.

U.S. CUSTOMS SERVICE
Service hours for U.S. Customs at Scottsdale Airport are 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. daily (appointments outside of these hours may be available). US-VISIT Service also is available at Scottsdale Airport, which allows international visitors to fly in and out of Scottsdale provided they have the proper visas.

WE’LL LEAVE YOU BREATHLESS AND YOUR CAMERA FULL

IT’S ALWAYS A GOOD DAY WHEN YOU’RE ON A TRAIN

• Rare FP7 locomotives pull beautifully restored cars through a dramatic river-carved canyon — location, location, location
• Red rock canyon beauty beckons all onto an outdoor viewing car — two seats for the price of one
• Sipping refreshing margaritas, private-labeled beer or wine — the only stress is which to choose
• Ride in the locomotive or charter the private caboose — a memory that will last a lifetime
• Untouched, unspoiled and only accessible by rail
